"5 Years After the Battle of Seattle: Where Have We Come and Where are We Going?"

OCTOBER 14, 2004 7:00 PM

Northwest Social Forum

Town Hall - 1119 Eighth Avenue
Seattle, WA

Please Join the International Forum on Globalization as we host the opening event of the Northwest Social Forum in Seattle, Washington and launch the new edition of our book, Alternatives to Globalization: a Better World is Possible.

The Northwest Social Forum will convene October 14 - 17 to unite social movements and discuss alternatives to corporate globalization which we can all implement today.

The Forum also marks the five-year anniversary of the "Battle of Seattle" and turns our attention to the better world that we all know is possible. The panel will focus on: "5 Years After the Battle of Seattle: Where Have We Come and Where are We Going?"

The IFG panel event will include: Maude Barlow (Council of Canadians, Canada), John Cavanagh (Institute for Policy Studies, U.S.), Tony Clarke (Polaris Institute, Canada), Martin Khor (Third World Network, Malaysia), David Korten (People-Centered Development Forum, U.S.), Jerry Mander (International Forum on Globalization, U.S.), Vandana Shiva (Research Foundation for Science, Technology and Ecology, India), Victoria Tauli-Corpuz (Indigenous Peoples' International Centre for Policy Research and Education, the Philippines), Lori Wallach (Public Citizen, U.S.) and others.

Tickets are $15 each ($5 discount for those registered for the Northwest Social Forum) and are available for advanced purchase at www.brownpapertickets.com/event/439.
